

Lanarca's team brings a proven track record in successful delivery of a wide range of senior level interim roles - in both the private and public sectors. Recent experience includes demanding roles leading change, enabling transformation and driving delivery in complex public sector organisations.

Examples include our engagements in:

Sub regional regeneration - Executive Director role for a public sector consortium leading sub regional regeneration strategy

Strategic organisational change- Director role leading the development of a major internal service review across a unitary authority resulting in cost savings, team re-structuring and enhanced outputs

Culture and community- range of linked roles for a London Borough over a three year term, driving culture change, comprehensively remodelling services and leading service improvement. Included the successful appointment of a new management and development team

Planning and partnerships - enabling leadership for the first year of a major private / public sector partnership for regeneration, investment and development management

Environmental services - within a London Borough as Service Head taking responsibility for the day to day management and strategic direction for a team of over 80 staff

Land management and outsourcing - led successful, extended private sector soft marketing followed by delivery of competitive dialogue process for a multi-million pound service area. Achieved detailed engagement of over 20 private sector organisations in competitive service externalisation offer

Development and capital projects - led a service area within a private sector organisation, responsible for a multimillion pound portfolio of development projects UK wide

With extensive experience operating within demanding public sector environments – and with practical working knowledge of the range of complex issues faced by leadership professionals in both the public and private sector, we offer a unique breadth of understanding and first-hand experience to provide key support for your organisation. We understand the needs faced by organisations seeking interim services and bring flexibility in our working methods to best meet your organisational needs.

